

IX International Conference on the Problems of Economic Development in the Modern World
«Sustainable Development of Russian Regions: New Political Economy and Models of Spatial Development»

April, 20-21, 2012

Organizers: Graduate School of Economics and Management of Ural Federal University (Ekaterinburg)
National Research University – Higher School of Economics (Moscow)
Business Journal «Expert–Ural»

Co-organizers: New Economic School (Moscow)
Graduate School of Management – St.Petersburg State University (St.Petersburg)
The Central Economic Mathematical Institute of the Russian Academy of Sciences
Institute of World Economy and International Relations of the Russian Academy of Science

Supported by the Ministry of Economic Development of Russian Federation

Plenary sessions

April, 20

- Fiscal Constraints of Global Economic Growth: the Disintegration of the Global Economics, «the Sunset of Europe» and the Appearance of New Leaders.
- Regions as Drivers of Economic Growth in terms of Global Economic Instability: Inter-regional Barriers of Economic Development and Overcoming Opportunities
- Economics of Agglomeration and Regional Clusters: how to combine business interests and objectives of spatial development?
- Economics of Agglomeration and Universities: whether knowledge economics can become a new driver of economic growth in Russia?
- Social Policy and Spatial Development

The on-site meeting of the Editorial Board of national scientific journal in the field of general and strategic management “Russian Journal of Management” as well as thematic events of international partners of GSEM: HESP, Emerald, SUST-RUS will take place within the conference.

Thematic sessions

April, 21

- Theoretical Economics and Economics and Mathematics Modeling
- The analytical methods of modelling of sustainable development
- Social–Economic, Scientific and Technological Foresight: Regional and Sectoral Forecasts
- Statistics and Demography
- Economic Growth and Sustainable Development
- Macro-trends and Global Instability
- Economic Policy, State Institutions and Development Institutions
- Financial Institutions and Financial Markets
- Fiscal tools of development and inter-budget relations
- International Economics
- Human Capital and Educational Markets
- Migration and Labor Markets
- Administrative reform and the increasing of management efficiency of the regional level
- Spatial and Regional Development
- Social Dimension of Regional Development and Health Economics
- Markets and Specific Complexes
- Problems of the Re-industrialization in Old Industrial Region: Metallurgy, Engineering Industry and Energy Sector
- Technology and Innovation
- Economics of Fastest Growing Sectors: IT and Communications
- Corporate Governance: Problems of Interaction between Business and Government
- Industrial Management
- Strategic and International Management
- Marketing and Marketing of Communications
- Logistics and Supply Chain Management

During the sessions it is supposed to discuss the reports that represent the results of authentic scientific researches on the issues of sustainable economic development of the regions, made on the basis of modern methods of economic research.

The deadline for submissions of papers for this conference in the frameworks of thematic sessions is March 1, 2012.

The deadline for submission of proposals for initiative sessions and round tables is January 10, 2012.

The papers and the proposals should be submitted to e-mail gsem.conf@ustu.ru or registered on-line on www.ustu.ru.

For further questions, please, contact:

Konstantin P. Yurchenko

Head of the Department of Economics

Graduate School of Economics and Management

Ural Federal University

e-mail: konstantin.yurchenko@usu.ru

Tel./Fax +7 (343) 350-21-65